Ask it like you'd ask a colleague

- What was my profit by product over the last 90 days?
- Who are my best customers?
- Which bestsellers are about to sell out?
- Where do my visitors come from?
- Which Google searches are rising?
- What are my competitors charging?
- What needs my attention today?

And it tells you first.

A morning email when a bestseller is on its last size, sales dip or Google clicks drop.

One question, all of these

Owner connector, beyond Shopify

Your shop can now talk to the rest of your business.

Shopify shows you the numbers. Claude and ChatGPT put them to work.

One request, four jobs done

"Make last month's profit into a spreadsheet and a PDF for my accountant, save it to Google Drive, and draft the email to Sarah."

✓ Profit from your shop ✓ Spreadsheet and PDF made
✓ Saved to Google Drive ✓ Email drafted for you

Bestsellers + Canva
This month's social post, designed

Sell-out watch + Calendar
A reorder reminder in your diary

Shop sales + Xero or QuickBooks
What you sold, next to your books

Monday report + Slack
Your team's week in one message

Rising Google searches + Gmail
A newsletter on what people want

Profit and traffic + Notion
A monthly review page, written up

Your imagination is the only limit.

Joining tools like these used to mean paying a developer. Now you switch on the ones you want, and switch them off whenever you like.

Examples. Connectors available depend on your Claude or ChatGPT plan. Ours stay read-only whatever else is connected.

OUR SUGGESTION

M · Petite 28in

- You usually wear M.
- Fit: True to size. Relaxed, straight leg that does not cling.
- 5 reviews mention fit: 5 say true to size.
- Height 160 cm: Petite 28in (under 5'4" (163 cm)).
